

Where can I find the model and key number of my lockout product?

Model number can be found on blister or box packaging

Key number is engraved on the key head

Model number can be engraved on the device